

GRAND JURY DECISION RENDERED IN JANUARY 9, 2021 VIRGINIA STATE POLICE SHOOTING

GOOCHLAND, VA – On February 24, 2021 a multi-jurisdictional grand jury was convened to consider evidence in the January 9, 2021 fatal shooting of 18-year-old Xzavier D. Hill by Virginia State Police Troopers. The grand jury returned a unanimous decision that the actions of the officers were justified in the exercise of deadly force and criminal charges against the two Virginia State Police Troopers involved are not warranted.

The Court granted approval for the grand jury's report to be publicly released. The grand jury report is available for review on the Goochland County Commonwealth's Attorney web page at <https://www.goochlandva.us/422/Commonwealths-Attorney>.

The criminal investigation having been concluded, and in response to Mr. Hill's family's recurring demand for its public release, the Virginia State Police dashboard camera footage of the incident played for the grand jury is also available online at <https://www.goochlandva.us/422/Commonwealths-Attorney>. *The video contains sensitive content related to Mr. Hill's death.
